

EDELWEISS CODE FOR TRADING IN OTHER THAN EDELWEISS FINANCIAL SERVICES LIMITED SECURITIES

I. Purpose of the Code

The SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as “Insider Trading Regulations”) mandate all market intermediaries to formulate an internal Code to regulate, monitor and report, trading by employees and other connected persons towards achieving compliance with the Regulations.

The Edelweiss Group is engaged in a variety of market intermediary activities including Merchant Banking, Stock Broking, Portfolio Management, Research and Investment Advisory Services. Accordingly, this Code is being formulated in accordance with Regulation 9(1) of the Regulations, clarifications and subsequent informal guidance letters issued by SEBI from time to time.

The activities of Edelweiss Group are regulated by the Securities & Exchange Board of India, Reserve Bank of India, Stock Exchanges, Depositories, Clearing Corporation of the Stock Exchanges, IRDA, etc. under the various Rules and Regulations, Bye-laws, Guidelines and Directives of those respective regulatory/ government authorities which are applicable to the businesses transacted by Edelweiss Group.

Given the diversity of the business operations and the multiplicity and complexity of the regulations that Edelweiss’ activities are subject to and given the impact of non-compliance, it is important that the employees of Edelweiss Group understand and comply strictly with the various regulatory requirements applicable to their respective business/ function.

Pursuant to amendments to the Insider Trading Regulations in December 2018, which are effective from 01 April 2019, the Company has suitably amended the “Code for Trading In Other than Edelweiss Financial Services Limited Securities” hereinafter referred as Non EFSL Code. This Code shall replace the existing Code of the Company and shall come into force with effect from July 01, 2020.

ii. Chinese Walls

The employees shall be guided by the Chinese Walls Policy adopted by the Company and approved by the Board of Directors; while handling UPSI. The said policy prescribes process with regards to how and when people shall be brought 'inside' on sensitive transactions.

No Insider shall communicate UPSI to any other person except on a need-to-know basis for furtherance of the Insider's legitimate purposes by permitting such other person to cross the Chinese Wall.

Any person in receipt of UPSI pursuant to a "Legitimate Purpose" shall be considered an "Insider" for purposes of these regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI in compliance with the Regulations.

VIII. Prevention of misuse of Price Sensitive Information

1. All Designated Persons and their Immediate Relatives as well as Connected Persons shall be subject to the trading restrictions as enumerated below.

2. Maintenance of Grey and Restricted List

- a) The Designated Compliance Officer shall be responsible for identification of employees who have access to UPSI
- b) The Designated Compliance Officer or any such person identified by the Designated Compliance Officer shall be responsible to confidentially maintain a 'Restricted List' / 'Grey List' of Securities which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for pre-clearance of trades.
- c) The Designated Compliance Officer shall maintain a Structured Digital Database containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under the Insider Trading Regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.
- d) It shall be ensured that Structured Digital Database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the SEBI regarding investigation/enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in Structured Digital Database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings

3. Pre clearance of trades and Holding Period

Pre clearance is required to be taken by all Designated Persons and their dependents (i.e Immediate Relative and Connected Persons) as defined above, for trading (includes buying, selling and pledging) in securities.

Preclearance is also required in case of the trades (includes buying, selling and pledging) undertaken by spouse of the Designated Person, who is financially independent and does not consult such person in taking decisions relating to trading in securities.

Seeking pre-clearance implies that the employee has declared that he/she is not in possession of any UPSI and employee's request for investment or trading is in compliance with this Code.

No pre-clearance is required in respect of

- a) Index contracts in futures and options segment
- b) Currency and Interest Rate Derivative (IRD) contracts

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pre-clearance requirement 	Not required for Index/Currency/IRD/ Commodity derivatives Required in case of Stock derivatives	No pre-clearance required for Index/ Currency/IRD/ Commodity derivatives Stock derivatives - Required if value is equal to or more than Rs. 10 lacs per day per scrip

Granting of pre clearance shall be at the discretion of the Group Compliance Officer and, he /she shall not be obliged to give any reason for refusing pre clearance.

All persons to whom this Code applies shall be required to report all decisions for not executing/partially executing trades after obtaining pre-clearance in the format provided in Annexure [A] hereto.

Research Analysts who are preparing a research report of any listed company shall additionally be required to adhere to the provisions of SEBI (Research Analysts) Regulations, 2014.

No person (Designated or Non-designated employees, their Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons) shall either trade in a security or apply for pre-clearance of such trade if such person is in possession of UPSI relating to the security.

In case sale of securities before the expiry of the minimum holding period is necessitated by personal emergency, the Group Compliance Officer may waive the requirement for the minimum holding period. A request for waiver shall be made to the Designated Compliance Officer in the format provided in Annexure [B]. The Designated Compliance Officer shall refer the case to the Group Compliance Officer for action.

4. Procedure for pre clearance

- a) The pre-clearance can be obtained online through Investment Request Form (IRF) available at intranet portal. Alternatively, an application can be made in the IRF to the Compliance Officer indicating the details of the intended transaction. A proforma of the IRF is attached as Annexure [C]. The trades can be executed only once pre-clearance is granted.
- b) The pre clearance granted is valid only for a day. If the order is not executed on the day on which the clearance is given, the concerned person will have to seek pre clearance again.
- c) If the trade request contains the name of the Security which is in Grey or Restricted List, the Compliance Officer will decline permission to trade, as per applicability of the list.
- d) The Designated Person would be required to take preclearance on behalf of Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons prior to undertaking the trades.
- e) .The Compliance Officer shall have the full right to ask for any demat statement or any other document at any time, to verify that the procedures mentioned in this Code are being followed.

IX. Norms for application in Issues Lead Managed by Edelweiss

In cases of issues lead managed by Edelweiss the following norms shall additionally apply:

- a) For Directors, Transaction Team and their Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons

- Transaction team handling the issue and their Immediate Relatives/entities and their Connected Persons are not allowed to apply in such issues. For this purpose, the information about persons in the transaction team handling the issue would be communicated to the Compliance Department
- Directors of the Lead Manager entity are not allowed to apply in such issues.
- The Directors, the transaction team and their Immediate Relatives/entities and their Connected Persons are allowed to participate in Rights Issues lead managed by Edelweiss ONLY to the extent of their Rights entitlement. These persons are not entitled to participate in the Rights Issue by subscribing through renunciation, thereby becoming a new shareholder of the company.

b) Financing

- No finance from any Edelweiss Group Company should be availed by any employee or their Immediate Relatives or Connected Persons for applying in any Issues lead managed by Edelweiss.

X. Norms for investment in Portfolio Management Schemes by Employees:

Employees including their Immediate Relatives and their Connected Persons are allowed to invest in Portfolio Management Schemes subject to adhering to pre-clearance requirement.

When employee including their Immediate Relatives and their Connected Persons deals in securities, directly or indirectly, when in possession of UPSI, such trades shall be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his/her possession. Thus, even while dealing in securities through a Discretionary Portfolio Management Scheme, such trades shall be assumed to be motivated by the knowledge and awareness of UPSI of securities in the Restricted/Grey list maintained by Edelweiss.

Thus, pre-clearance requirement shall be applicable to all employees including their Immediate Relatives and their Connected Persons for investments in Portfolio Management Scheme which entail investments in securities.

However, the pre-clearance requirement is not applicable in case of financially independent spouse, when the investments are in Discretionary Portfolio Management Scheme outside Edelweiss.

XI. Trading in Listed Securities by Group companies:

In as much as Chinese Wall procedures operate throughout the Group to mitigate the risk of trading based on UPSI and given the fact that Edelweiss Group Companies trade in the markets in the regular and ordinary course of business in furtherance of directional and hedging strategies, both algorithmic and otherwise, an appropriate policy framework to regulate trades by Edelweiss Group Companies shall be as specified by the Group Compliance Officer from time to time.

Group companies shall be allowed to trade through Edelweiss Group broking entities or through outside brokers.

Group companies shall be allowed to trade in listed securities provided the person taking trading decisions is not doing so on the basis of or whilst in possession of UPSI.

XII. Declarations and reporting requirements:

a) Undertaking

- At the time of joining the Edelweiss Group, an undertaking in the format provided in Annexure [D] shall be executed in favour of the company by all Designated Employees to whom this Code applies, incorporating, inter alia, that in case he/she has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would refrain from dealing in the securities of the client company till the time such information becomes public.
- That he/she will not contravene the Code for prevention of insider trading as specified by the organisation from time to time.

relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.”

- iii. In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.
- iv. The declaration should be submitted within such time as notified by the Designated Compliance Officer, in the format provided in Annexure [E] hereto, along with the annual holding statement or electronically as required

c) Declaration- Self and Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons

- A declaration should be given by all Designated Employees giving details of Self and their Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons.
- The said declaration shall be given by the Designated Employees giving details of Self and their Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons at the time of joining, or in cases of change in category of employee to Designated Employee and for the period ending March 31 every year. The format of the declaration is attached as Annexure [F].
- Any change in the list of Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons, should be intimated to the Designated and Group Compliance Officer immediately. Details of such change shall also be given in the format specified in Annexure [F] or electronically as required

d) Statement of Holding – Self and Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons

- At the time of joining or in case of change in category of employee as Designated Employee and on annual basis, all Designated Employees shall furnish demat account statement/s for Self and Immediate Relatives and Connected Persons, whether such account is held with Edelweiss Securities Ltd / Edelweiss Broking Limited or with any other Depository Participant in the format as given in Annexure [G] or electronically as required .

XIII. Consequences of violation of the Code

- Any violation of this Code by any person to whom this Code applies can lead to sanctions or severe punitive action against the erring person, including wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback or termination of employment/ association and such other actions as the Committee deems fit.
- The Board of Directors shall authorize formation of “Code Monitoring Committee” The Committee will make an inquiry, as appropriate, in the cases of any violation of this code. The Committee considering the nature and severity of the Violation/Breach, may decide to report any such breach and action taken to the Stock Exchange. The above actions of Company will be without prejudice to any civil or criminal action that the regulatory authorities may initiate against such an employee.

- Failure or refusal to co-operate in such enquiry or investigation shall be deemed to be a serious violation of the obligation owed to the Company under this Code.
- Any amount collected under this clause shall be remitted to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the SEBI under the Act.
- Any employee who trades in securities on the Restricted List / Grey List or does not seek prior permission to trade shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company for any consequences thereof. In addition to termination of employment, if effected, such employee will personally bear the consequences of default, whether monetary or not.
- In the case of Connected Persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such Connected Persons. Hence the employee shall be liable to prove that the trades were not undertaken by him/her while in possession of UPSI.
- Disciplinary action taken by Edelweiss Group is irrespective of the action that may be taken by The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) in respect of violation of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

XIV. Compliance with Code for Prohibition of Insider Trading in the Securities of Edelweiss Financial Services Limited (EFSL)

In addition to this code, the 'Edelweiss Code for Prohibition of Insider Trading in the Securities of Edelweiss Financial Services Limited (EFSL)' including any guidelines / framework / amendments issued thereunder from time to time, shall be applicable to all employees in relation to their dealings (trading / pledge / exercise of stock options etc.) in EFSL Securities which includes equity share, Debentures and other securities as may be issued by the EFSL or its subsidiary or associate companies and listed on the Stock Exchange.
